Dear Home Secretary,

I published The Paedotrial book in February 2013. In March I sent a copy to every senior judge and chambers in the country asking; "Is this really British justice!" Not suprisingly I didn't received a reply.

I have since made a short video of the six week paedotrial (enclosed). I have sent a copy of the DVD to every CPS office in this country with a note of my complaint asking for this matter to be investigated.

The reason I have sent you a copy is because Maidenhead Council paid out around £5,000,000 in compensation & legal fees to 21 ex residents for the abuse they suffered at the Green Field House Maidenhead childrens home which I believe is in your constituency.

The first payout in November of 2006 to nine ex residents was just over £3,000,000. After the Council's insurers paid out they sued one of the paedophiles Gilbert-Smith, who settled out of court.

I am wondering how you stand with paedophiles paying your council large sums of cash, and your council accepting the money and helping to keep the paedophile's activities out of the public eye.

I say this after listening to your recent statements regarding paedophiles in our communities.

Yours sincerely,

J. Affleck
